Primary schools 2023 / 2024

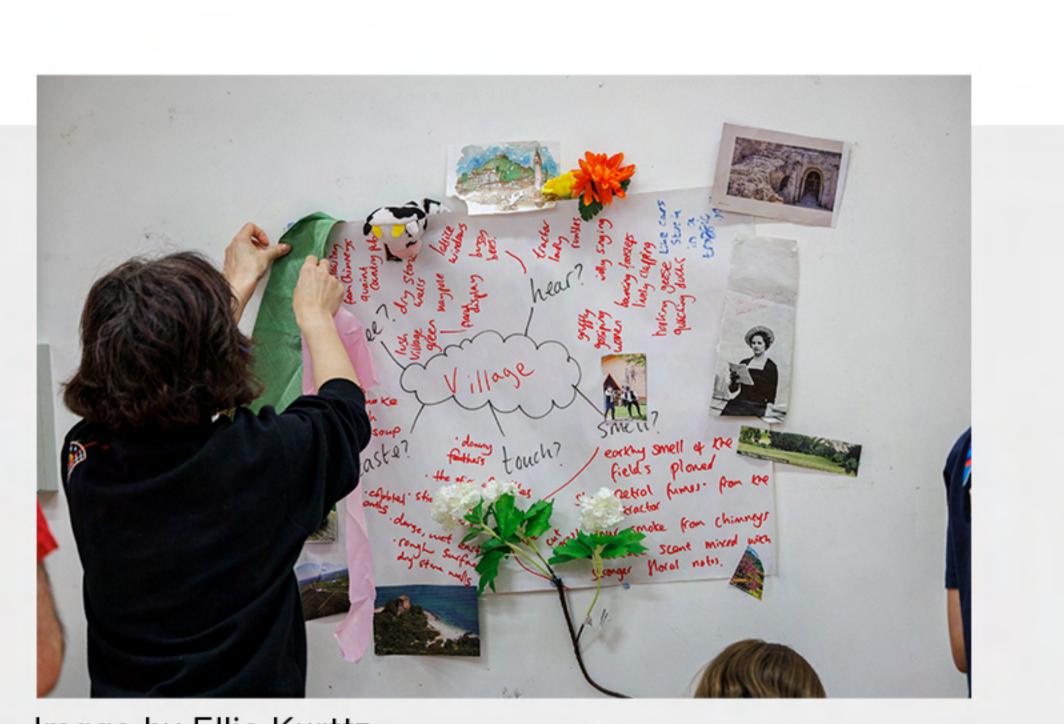

Find out more about the

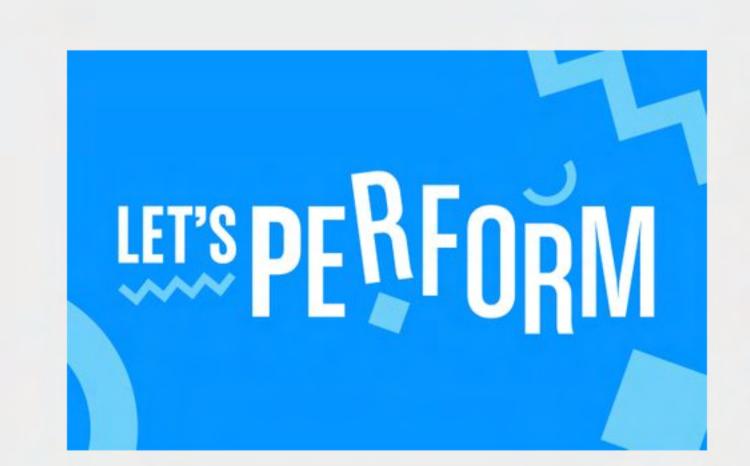

November

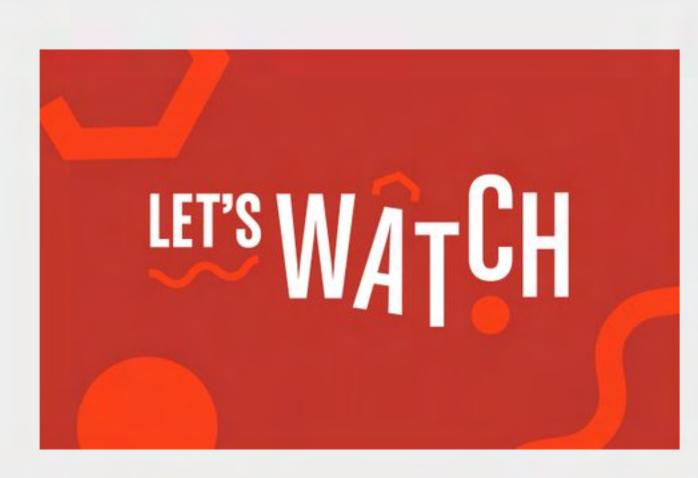

Let's Perform: create extraordinary performances as part of lessons, an exciting assembly or a school production.

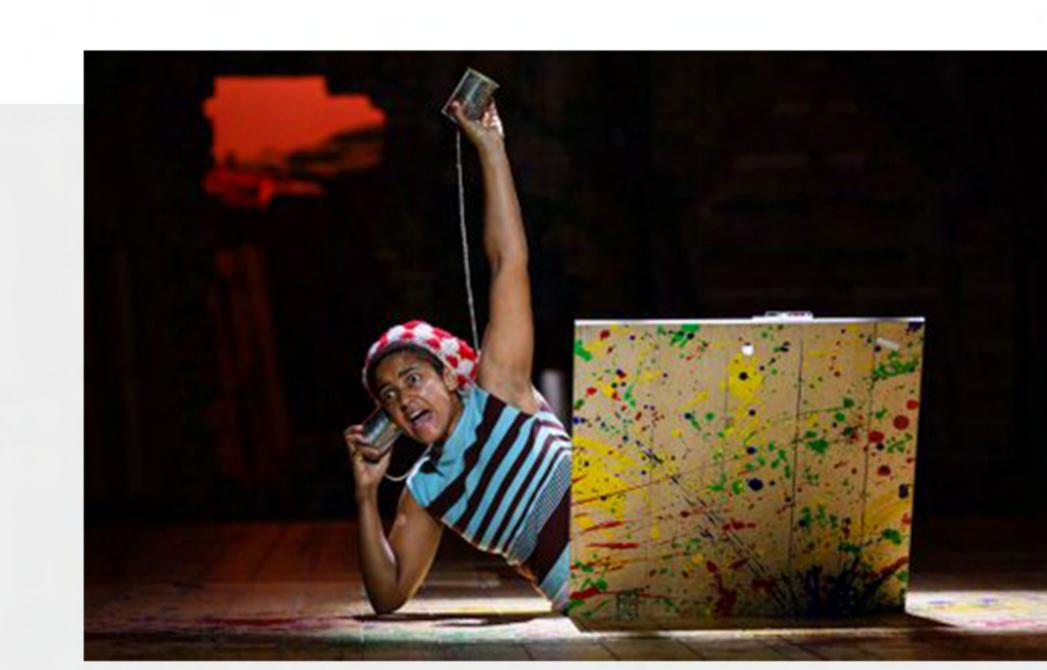

Let's Watch: watch high-quality theatre productions – both live and

National Theatre Collection

Stream the best of British theatre directly into your classroom. Free for all UK state schools and colleges. New titles now available from the Unicorn Theatre.

Find out more and register

Stay up-to-date

School tickets

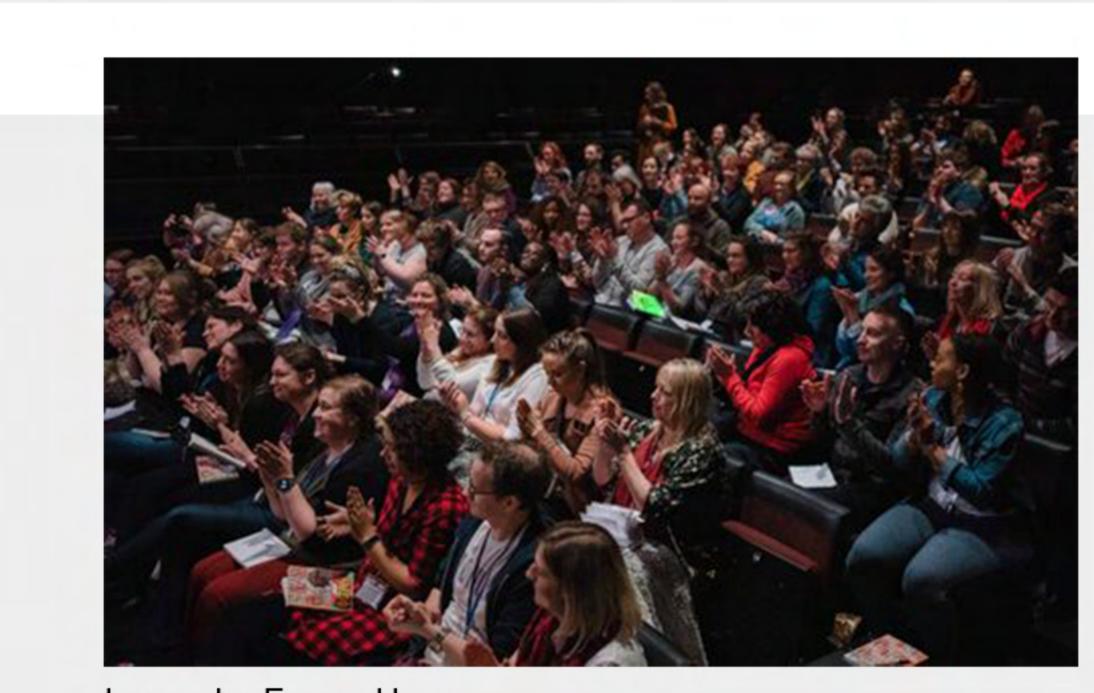

Inspiring theatre productions including The Witches, from 7 November, age 8+. £10 tickets for state school groups.

Book tickets for schools

Creativity Conference

Enhance your skills and be inspired by this two-day celebration of creative learning, led by theatre professionals and creative learning specialists.

June Creativity Conference

Find out more and apply to attend

Our funders

Our Nationwide Learning and Primary Schools Programmes are supported by;

The Primary Schools Programme is also supported by The Charity of Sir Richard Whittington.

Join our community of primary schools and be the first to find out about upcoming opportunities

Sign up to the Let's Play network

Theatre tours

backstage at the National Theatre.

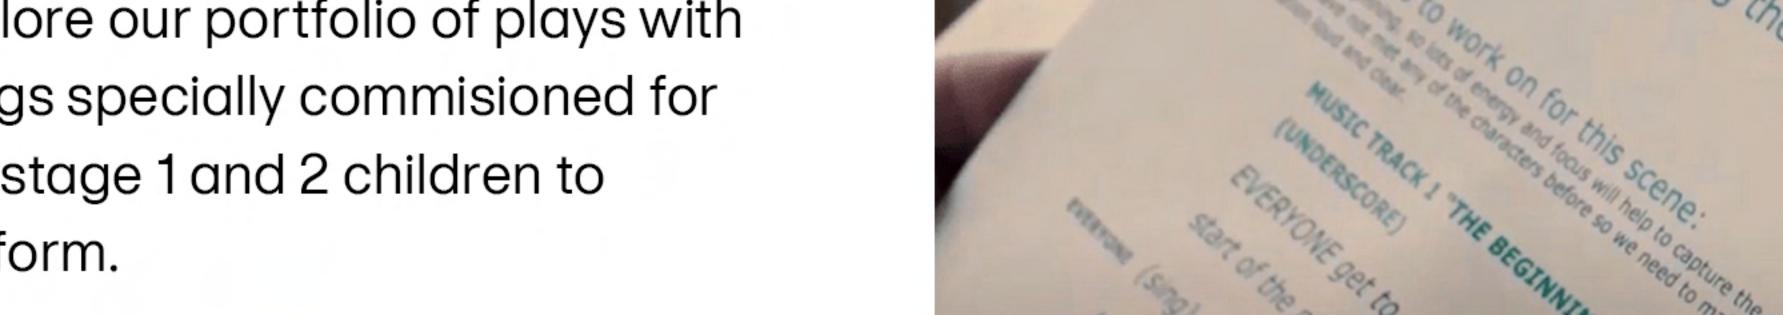

Image by Ludo des Cognets

Plays

Explore our portfolio of plays with songs specially commisioned for key stage 1 and 2 children to perform.

Find out more

Creative Learning resources

Free short films and downloads to introduce creative learning to your classroom.

Find out more

Find out more and book tour