Welcome, we're thrilled to begin the year by announcing our full programme for 2026. There's much to look forward to this year on the South Bank – from reinterpreted classics to ambitious new work and world-class artists.

In the Lyttelton, Sandra Oh will make her National Theatre debut in Martin Crimp's searing new version of Molière's The Misanthrope, directed by Indhu Rubasingham.

In the Olivier, Clint Dyer directs Tracey Scott Wilson's seminal newsroom thriller, The Story. Letitia Wright, Ashley Thomas, Lorraine Toussaint and Wilf Scolding play four journalists racing to uncover the truth.

Finally, following a sold-out national tour, the Tony Award-winning War Horse gallops back to where it all began, playing in the Olivier nearly two decades after its debut at the National Theatre. We can't wait to welcome you to the South Bank in 2026.

Indhu Rubasingham, Director
Kate Varah, Executive Director

War Horse

based on the novel by Michael Morpurgo adapted by Nick Stafford in association with Handspring Puppet Company

At the outbreak of the First World War, young Albert's beloved horse Joey is sold to the cavalry and shipped to France. Too young to enlist, Albert refuses to forget him, embarking on an extraordinary journey from the fields of rural Devon to the trenches of wartime France – determined to bring Joey home.

Based on Michael Morpurgo's beloved novel, War Horse is the timeless story of love, courage and friendship. Following a sold-out national tour, the Tony Award-winning global sensation returns to where it all began, nearly two decades after its debut at the National Theatre.

The Story

by Tracey Scott Wilson

When a white teacher is killed in a black neighbourhood, four journalists race to get the headline – at any cost. But when shocking new evidence pulls them into the dark heart of the case, they are each forced to confront what they're prepared to risk to tell their version of the truth.

Gripping and adrenaline-fuelled, Tracey Scott Wilson's seminal newsroom thriller is directed by Clint Dyer (Death of England) with a cast including BAFTA Award-winner Letitia Wright (Black Panther), Ashley Thomas (MOBO Award-winner, Bashy), Lorraine Toussaint (Orange is the New Black), and Wilf Scolding (Cabaret).

The Misanthrope

by Martin Crimp
after Molière

Alice, a brilliant novelist, despises the hollow contemporary mantras of kindness and respect. But the bolder she becomes in speaking out, the more colleagues avoid her, and the more her personal relationships begin to fracture.

As she challenges fashionable ideas and lends her voice to causes others are afraid to touch, she faces intense criticism and backlash. Alice will soon learn the price she must pay as an artist and as a woman for daring to speak her mind.

Award-winner Sandra Oh (Killing Eve) is the Misanthrope in Martin Crimp's (Cyrano de Bergerac) cutting new version of Molière's dark comedy, directed by National Theatre Director Indhu Rubasingham (The Father and the Assassin).

Ballet Shoes

by Noel Streatfeild in a new version by Kendall Feaver

In a crumbling house full of dinosaur bones and fossils, three adopted sisters – Pauline, Petrova and Posy – are learning who they are and what they want to be.

Under the watchful eyes and guidance of their guardian Sylvia, Nana, and some unlikely lodgers, they fight to pursue their individual passions. But in a world that wasn't built for women with big ambitions, can they forge a future, keep their family together, and even learn a dance or two along the way?

Katy Rudd (The Ocean at the End of the Lane) returns to the National Theatre to direct this 'perfect joy' (★★★★★ The i), as Noel Streatfeild's beloved novel is brought back to the Olivier stage in this new version by Kendall Feaver (The Almighty Sometimes).

Summerfolk

by Maxim Gorky
in a new version by Nina Raine and Moses Raine

It's a hot, beautiful summer in 1905, and Russia's elite retreat to the countryside to swim, sip champagne and start affairs.

When they're having this much fun, why care about anything else? But Varvara just can't shake the feeling that their holiday idyll is built on borrowed time.

As the party continues, how long can they ignore the storm on the horizon?

Deputy Artistic Director Robert Hastie (Standing at the Sky's Edge) directs Maxim Gorky's razor-sharp portrait of class, privilege and denial, revived for 2026 in a new adaptation from Nina Raine (Consent) and Moses Raine (Donkey Heart)

The Playboy of the Western World

by John Millington Synge

Pegeen Flaherty's life is turned upside down when, on a normal day, a young man walks into her pub claiming that he's killed his father.

Instead of being shunned, the killer Christy Mahon becomes a local hero. The welcome murderer wins hearts and races as he beds himself into village life. That is until a second man unexpectedly arrives on the scene...

Caitríona McLaughlin (Artistic Director of the Abbey Theatre, Dublin) directs Nicola Coughlan (Bridgerton), Éanna Hardwicke (The Sixth Commandment) and Siobhán McSweeney (Derry Girls) in John Millington Synge's riveting story of youth and self-discovery.

Les Liaisons Dangereuses

by Christopher Hampton based on the novel by Pierre Choderlos de Laclos

Among the glittering salons of the super-rich, patriarchy equals power, reputation is everything – and for women, one misstep can mean ruin.

Marquise de Merteuil, master in the art of survival, wields her influence with intelligence and control. Alongside the magnetic Vicomte de Valmont, they turn seduction into strategy and weaponise desire. But when their alliance collapses into rivalry, the battle between them threatens to destroy everyone in their path.

Marianne Elliott (Angels in America) directs Lesley Manville (Phantom Thread) and Aidan Turner (Rivals) in a striking reimagining of Christopher Hampton's (The Father) celebrated adaptation of Choderlos de Laclos' classic novel – a thrilling game of love, lies and social warfare.

Man and Boy

by Terence Rattigan

Jazz, Broadway and the Great Depression. In 1930s New York City, international financier Gregor Antonescu's luck has finally run out. As news of a catastrophic business deal ripples across the world, he flees to the apartment of his estranged son Basil.

Truths are uncovered and relationships are tested as Gregor gets down to business, to save his reputation and keep his empire from collapse.

In his National Theatre debut, director Anthony Lau (The Crucible) brings a sharp, contemporary edge to Terence Rattigan's tale of paternity and corruption, with Ben Daniels (The Normal Heart) and Laurie Kynaston (Long Day's Journey into Night) playing father and son.

The Authenticator

a new play by Winsome Pinnock

Soon after inheriting her family's stately home, eccentric artist Fenella Harford discovers a stash of hidden diaries and enlists a young academic, Marva, to confirm their authenticity.

Joined by Marva's brilliant but overlooked mentor, Abi, the three women come together to seek the truth, soon realising that secrets at the heart of Harford Hall were darker than they could have imagined.

A gripping gothic psychological thriller, The Authenticator reunites writer Winsome Pinnock (Leave Taking) with director Miranda Cromwell (Death of a Salesman) following their acclaimed production, Rockets and Blue Lights.

Pride

a new musical produced by P&P Productions with the National Theatre, in association with Pathé

Summer, 1984. With miners on strike across the country, 24-year-old activist Mark Ashton tries to rally a disparate group of gay men and lesbians into supporting the beleaguered miners. Lesbians and Gays Support the Miners (LGSM) quickly finds itself entwined with a small pit village in South Wales.

What follows is the remarkable true story of two threatened communities joining forces – and discovering they have more in common than they ever imagined.

Funny, fierce and full of heart, Pride unites the director and writer of the original film, Matthew Warchus and Stephen Beresford, with composers Christopher Nightingale, Josh Cohen and DJ Walde.

nationaltheatre.org.uk/your-visit/eat-and-drink

Soak up the South Bank spirit at The Understudy, our lively riverside pub serving rotating guest beers, cocktails on tap and mouthwatering street food from KERB traders. Tuck into loaded hash browns, fresh Middle Eastern wraps or authentic tasty tacos, then sip your way through drinks from Black Lines, Sapling, Two Drifters and Nirvana Brewing. Whether you're catching a show or the sunset, find your spot inside or out on our spacious terrace.

Take your seat at Lasdun and savour carefully crafted cocktails and modern British dishes with views across the Thames. Locally sourced ingredients serve as the inspiration across the pre-theatre and à la carte menus, enjoyed from 5pm every evening and from 12noon til 2pm Wednesday and Saturday. Pop in for pre-theatre or stay or all night long.

As the curtain falls, step into Grind for late-night cocktails and conversation. With bold flavours and a buzzing atmosphere, this stylish bar is where the night finds its second act, open until 11pm. Find it on the ground floor, near Rennie's Bar and the Lyttelton Theatre.

Discover Forza Wine, our rooftop restaurant and bar where natural wines and seasonal Italian-inspired plates steal the show. Sip cocktails, snack on cauliflower fritti and soak up panoramic views of the Thames and London Eye from the wraparound terrace. Perfect for groups, parties and golden-hour moments.
